Nelan

er on the U.S. team.

While in Rome, Nelan set American records in the 50-yard freestyle and the 100-yard fly, and was on the world record-setting U.S. 400-yard freestyle relay team.

"It was awesome to compete at that level with the world records and help the U.S.A. win golds," Nelan said.

It was when Nelan returned to College Station that his faith in himself and his trust in his direction was tested again. Nelan returned and was having trouble improving his times. It was then, during the 2001-2002 season, that he was redshirted by Coach Nash.

"That year showed me that you can't give up," Nelan said. "Everybody is going to hit rock bottom at some point in their life, and that's when you find out who you really are. I knew that if I had faith in the Lord and my ability and that if I trained hard, I would come through. I just had to trust."

After much contemplation, Nelan decided to stay at A&M and keep training, but heading into this season, not a whole lot had changed. As late as the Big 12 Conference meet, he was swimming on the "B-squad."

But while swimming in a relay, Nelan made an impressive split time and Nash moved him into a time trial relay. The team of four swimmers qualified for the NCAA Championships, making Nelan the first swimmer in A&M history to qualify for the Championships who was not on the first team.

The accomplishment is only the most recent in the career of a student athlete who has chosen to overcome any obstacle he might face.

"It shows anything can happen," Nelan said. "Whether you're on A squad or B squad, if you believe and trust in the Lord it can happen."

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Postponed games to be played today

Multiple Texas A&M squads had their games postponed yesterday due to reports of impending poor weather.

The A&M baseball, softball and women's tennis teams cancelled their Tuesday evening events and rescheduled them for the same times tonight.

The softball team's games are scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. at the Aggie Softball Complex, the women's tennis match is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. at the A&M Tennis Center and the first pitch of today's baseball game is set for 7 p.m. at Olsen Field.
