play and good coaching. "Bobby (Kleinecke) and (Assistant Coach) Alison (Ojeda) are great coaches and their players fight and compete for them everyday, and today was no different," Fleishman said.

However, the match was not clinched for the Aggies until sophomore Lauren Walker dispatched WFU junior Elizabeth Proctor in three tight sets. Kleinecke said it was tough to tell which way the match would swing until Walker solidified the A&M victory, sending WFU to its 14th consecutive loss.

"Thank goodness Lauren (Walker) came through with the win today," Kleinecke said. "This kind of a win is an equalizer, especially since we came into today's match lacking a bit of confidence."

The Aggies will have a bit of down time before seeing their next action on Friday. A&M will have ample time to prepare for Sam Houston State and Texas Tech, which is a welcoming chance to do a bit of mild tweaking in a focused practice setting.

"We've got to get back into our routine,"

A&M senior Jessica Roland returns a serve in her victory against Wake Forest sophomore Karin Coetzee.

Kleinecke said. "We're going to work on a game plan and the big thing is we are going to finally have the practice time to do so."

The Aggies square off against Sam Houston at noon this Friday at the A&M Tennis Center before facing the Red Raiders at 6 p.m.

Texas, Kansas among Final Four

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Texas Longhorns are the last No. 1 seed standing, headed to the Final Four for the first time in 56 years.

Texas guard T.J. Ford had 19 points and 10 assists to lead the Longhorns to the biggest victory in school history Sunday, against Michigan State 85-76 in the South Regional final — just 80 miles from their Austin campus.

With chants of "Texas Fight" and "Final Four" reverberating throughout the Alamodome, the Longhorns earned the school's first trip to the Final Four since 1947, when the NCAA tournament field was eight teams.

As the final seconds ticked away, Ford dribbled to half-court, flashed a "Hook'em Horns" sign to the crowd and hugged Texas Head Coach Rick Barnes. Ford was named the most valuable player of the region. The Texas win means the Big 12 will have two teams in the Final Four for the second straight year. The University of Kansas, the league's regular-season champion, won the West Regional on Saturday.

The loss kept Michigan

State from appearing in its fourth Final Four in five years.

The last time only one No. 1 seed made the Final Four was 2000, when top-seeded Michigan State won the national title.

Texas (26-6) will play Syracuse University (28-5) in the national semifinals next Saturday. The Orangemen beat Oklahoma earlier Sunday. Texas had five players score in double figures. Brandon Mouton had 16, Brian Boddicker 15, Sydnil Harris 12 and Brad Buckman 11 as the Longhorns tied the school record for victories in a season.

Paul Davis led Michigan State (22-13) with 15 points and Erazem Lorbek had 14 points and nine rebounds.

The Spartans had a 38-28 rebounding advantage but couldn't match Texas' 49 percent shooting and 29-of-38 effort from the foul line. Texas never trailed after leading 18-16 in the first half, and the Spartans never got closer than five in the second.

Texas dictated the fast pace it wanted in the first half, shooting 53 percent as Boddicker and Harris combined to hit five 3-pointers to counter the Spartans' 23-11 rebounding advantage.

Texas will be joined in the Final Four by Kansas, Marquette University and Syracuse.

Love III wins Players Championship

By Doug Ferguson
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Fla. — Davis Love III provided the charge everyone expected every bit as dominant Sunday in The Players Championship. Love pulled away with five straight birdies and closed with an 8-under 64 to match the best final round by the winner in the 30-year history of the tournament known as the fifth major.

It was the second time Love has won The Players Championship and it could be a huge boost to his confidence with the Masters only two weeks away. Love finished at 17-under 271 and won by 6 strokes over Jay Haas and Pdraig Harrington of Ireland, who shed the lead going into the final round but never stood a chance against such a barrage of birdies. Love was playing in the group ahead with his best friend on tour, Fred Couples who also had 64 when he won The Players Championship seven years ago.

This performance was even better. Strong, cold winds that shooed away the rain left the TPC at Sawgrass as difficult as it had been all week, but Love made it look like he was on a pitch-and-putt.

Even into the crosswind, the most challenging in golf, Love blasted his drives down the middle of the fairway and stuck his approach shots close to the hole.

"You can't do that for 18 holes, and he did it," Couples said. "That's the best round I've ever seen played. In these conditions, he did not miss a shot."

Love earned $1.17 million from the richest purse on the PGA Tour.

"It was the best round of golf I've ever played, especially under these circumstances," Love said. "It seemed like every time I looked up, it was going right in the middle. It was an exciting round of golf."
