Pars and putts add up to a green jacket for Mike Weir

By Tim Dahlberg
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Mike Weir managed to get through 18 holes without making a bogey. When he finally did, it was good enough to win a green jacket.

Weir needed to make four birdies under the pressure of a Sunday at Augusta National to win the Masters. But it was the gritty way he kept salvaging pars that gave him the chance.

Weir saved his two biggest par putts for the final two holes of regulation, including a 6-footer on the 18th hole that was the difference between playing some more or accepting the silver medal given the runner-up.

"I wouldn't wish that putt on anyone," Weir said. "That's as nerve-racking as it gets."

Len Mattiace was already finished at 7-under par and waiting for a possible playoff as Weir carefully looked over the putt on the 18th green before a hushed gallery.

He stroked it into the cup, just as he knocked in a 5-footer for par the hole before to keep his hopes alive.

Instead of celebrating, though, he had to walk to the adjacent 10th tee, pull out his driver and go back to work.

"It was probably the biggest shot of my life," Weir said. "It's one of the most difficult things you can have in golf, a putt to tie a major championship."

Six times in the last seven holes, Weir made putts between 4 and 15 feet. Two were for birdies to get in a tie with Mattiace, while the others were for par to keep him tied.

The only makeable putt he missed all day was a 10-footer for par on the first playoff hole. By then, it didn't matter because Mattiace had already made double bogey.

"It was just a gut-wrenching day," Weir said. "A lot of comeback putts that I needed to make and was able to make them."

It was different for Weir four years ago when he was paired with Tiger Woods in the final round of the PGA Championship, and got a close glimpse at how hard it was to win a major championship.

Weir shot 80 that day, losing Medinah Country Club to a 10-hole playoff. He was bitterly disappointed but eager to learn from the experience.

"It was a very difficult time for me then, but at the same time, I did observe how Tiger managed his victory. Weir said. "And I remember the clutch putt he made on Sunday and how he really stayed in his game."

Woods made one big putt on 17 to win his first PGA title. On Sunday, Weir made three birdies.

For the record, he had putts inside of 8 feet on the 18th hole. But the statistics are as meaningless as the clutch putt he made on Sunday.

"I made literally all putts inside of 8 feet today," Weir said. "At the PGA, I don't think I made as many putts as I did in the Masters. That was the difference this week."

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Baseball team sweeps Wildcats

The Texas A&M baseball team swept its three-game series with the Kansas State Wildcats, defeating KSU 16-3 on Sunday.

A&M junior Justin Ruggiano went 2-3 with two home runs as the No. 17 Aggies improved their record to 29-11 overall and 10-5 in the Big 12.

Kansas State dropped to 10-23 overall and remains winless (0-12) in league play.

Wilhelmson struck out eight batters while pitching only one in the complete game shutout. Offensively, the Aggies (30-14, 8-4 Big 12) received a boost from sophomore Adam Gregory's fifth home run of the season.

Archers bring home team title

All-Americans archers Amber Dawson and Zorn joined freshmen Amanda Raffaelli and Kuchensbrod to win the Arizona Cup composite team final on Saturday. The quartet defeated Western Warriors, 257-246, to take the team title. The win followed a victory over Canada in the semifinals.

Additional events in the archery competition will continue through today.

Wilhelmson pitches no-hitter

Texas A&M junior Lindsey Wilhelmson pitched her first career no-hitter on Sunday, as A&M defeated the Kansas Jayhawks by a score of 5-0.
