they would not relinquish. With two outs in the bottom of the seventh and Fowler and Morgan Hebert on second and third for the Aggies, Collins hit a two-run double to bring the Aggies to within one. However, sophomore outfielder Jana James flew out to left, ending the Aggies' hopes of a comeback.

Iowa State Head Coach Ruth Crowe said she was proud of her team's performance, especially its comeback win in the second game.

"The thing about our kids is we never quit," Crowe said. "The first game was crazy with all the home runs, but it was great to fight back and win the second game. We just tried to put the ball in play and give our big hitters a chance to drive in some runs, which they did."

Meanwhile, Aggie Head Coach Jo Evans said she was pleased with the job her seniors did against the Cyclones.

"I'm proud of our kids for fighting hard," she said. "Jennifer (Davis) and Cheryl (Fowler) were both hitless until the last inning, and I was proud of them for coming through like they did."

On Tuesday, the Aggies will step on the field for a pivotal conference game against the University of Texas Longhorns. The first pitch is scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

A&M baseball team takes series vs. OSU

Texas A&M senior pitcher Zach Dixon allowed two runs and struck out seven in his six innings of work, leading the No. 16 Aggies (32-12, 12-6 Big 12) to a 4-2 victory against No. 21 Oklahoma State (26-13, 9-6 Big 12) on Sunday.

Freshman John Infante scored first for A&M on an RBI single from junior Matt Alexander. The Aggies added another run in the fifth and scored their final two runs in the sixth on a home run from senior Jordy Mitchell.

Aggie women clinch share of Big 12 title

A 7-0 victory over Kansas earned the Texas A&M women's tennis team a share of the Big 12 Conference title on Saturday. With the win, the Aggies tied Baylor for first place in the conference with a 9-2 record.

A&M's last conference championship came in 1986 when the Aggies won the Southwest Conference title.

"We knew going into this weekend that we just needed to come out and take care of what we can control," said A&M Head Coach Bobby Kleineck. "I am extremely proud of the guts we showed."

A&M earns six first-place finishes in Austin

Five Texas A&M track and field athletes earned a total of six gold medals in the Longhorn Invitational during the weekend.

Freshman Helen Breyfogle and sophomore Katie Cullen picked up first place finishes in their respective events. Junior Sarah Steadman earned two gold medals.

Senior Chris Sitka and junior Scott Peterson earned top finishes in the men's competition.

Equestrian team takes third in tournament

The Texas A&M equestrian team finished third at the 2003 Varsity Championships held at N.W. Freeman Arena on Saturday. The Aggies struggled early on before mounting comebacks in both the English and western competitions.

Sophomore western rider Katie Forest led A&M, earning the competition's highest reigning score of 148.5. Forest also picked up a fifth place finish in the first section of horsemanship.
