Yankees top Twins to keep Wells unbeaten

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Alfonso Soriano hit a grand slam and Nick Johnson homered twice to give David Wells more than enough support as the New York Yankees completed their second straight season sweep of the Minnesota Twins with a 15-1 victory Monday.

Wells (3-0) pitched a seven-hitter. Dustan Mohr spoiled the shutout bid in the eighth with a home run. Bernie Williams also homered, Erick Almonte had a career-high three hits and Raul Mondesi also went 3-for-4 for the Yankees.

Two errors cost Rick Reed (1-3) in the third, when Almonte doubled to center and moved up a base when Bobby Kielty bled the ball.

Soriano hit a sharp grounder to left that Chris Gomez couldn't scoop up, allowing Almonte to score.

Johnson hit a two-run homer to make 3-0. Reed allowed a career-high 11 hits and 10 runs in 4 1-3 innings.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Houston Bowl to be held Dec. 30

(AP) — The Houston Bowl is getting Christmas time off.

The game, which for its first three years has fallen on the Friday after Christmas, has agreed with ESPN to play the afternoon of Dec. 30 this year.

"Playing on December 30 will greatly enhance ticket sales," bowl president Joseph J. Ippoliti said. "And now the families will be able to spend Christmas together and the travel to Houston."

Dave Brown, director of programming and acquisitions for ESPN, said the network plans for a bowl doubleheader featuring the Houston Bowl, the Holiday Bowl. Both will feature Big 12 teams.

20 hits for the weekend.

Sophomore second baseman Adrian Gregory, senior shortstop Crystal Martin and senior catcher Selena Collins all had big weekends at the plate for the Aggies, and they hope to carry that consistency into the game against Texas.

For Collins, getting motivated for the game against the Longhorns should not be a problem, especially since the Longhorns will be facing a raucous Aggie crowd.

"We're excited to get another opportunity to play here at home with our crowd and our fans," Collins said. "Even though we split the series against Iowa State, we've accomplished some great things. We did a great job of hitting the ball, and even though we scored early and kind of fell back in the second game, we fought to the end and didn't give up."

Meanwhile, Longhorn Head Coach Connie Clark will be expecting a hard fought game from the Aggies.

"A&M is a quality club," Clark said. "It's always a rivalry matchup when we play each other. I expect a great game like we had the first time. I know Jo Evans will have the team prepared, and we hope to be ready to face the challenge."

After locking up with the Longhorns, the Aggies will have a short turnaround before they host Baylor on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the Aggie Softball Complex.

Southeastern Louisiana this weekend in Hammond, La.

The Bearkats lost games two and three of the series but walk off grand slams by Southeastern Louisiana.

Offensively, Sam Houston led by junior catcher Andre Kasperek, who leads the team with six home runs and a .358 batting average.

The Bearkats are hoping to get back on the winning track and avoid being swept by the Aggies for the second consecutive year.

Johnson said A&M knows Sam Houston can play well, but his team will be ready.

"Right now they are interested in their conference tournament," Johnson said. "But everybody shoots for the Big 12 teams. I saw where they knocked off Rice last week and that definitely got our attention. We are going to have to be ready to go and play well."

Now it's time to put on your thinking cap.
