

Congratulations Graduates!

Open at 11:00 a.m.

Friday the 9th

Saturday the 10th

OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE

2102 S. TEXAS AVE. COLLEGE STATION
764-4329

SUMMER SLIMDOWN SAVINGS!!!

Isn't it about time that yours is the bikini body they're all jealous of?

1/2 OFF
All Programs

With a valid student ID

LA WEIGHT LOSS CENTER

1908 Texas Ave. South
College Station, TX
(979) 694-3570

Attention Seniors Graduating August or December 2003 English 301 (Technical Writing)

Forcing

The Writing Programs Office will force eligible students into ENGL 301. To be eligible for forcing, you must

- have fulfilled the appropriate prerequisite (ENGL 104 or transfer-credit for its equivalent) and
- be graduating in the semester you wish to be forced.

Force Dates

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Summer I, II, and Fall | Wednesday, April 30, 9:00 a.m. - noon Thursday, May 1, 9:00 a.m. - noon Monday, June 2, 9:00 a.m. - noon* |
| Summer II and Fall | Tuesday, July 8, 9:00 a.m. - noon* |
| Fall | Monday, September 1, 9:00 a.m. - noon* |

*Late registration fees may apply.

Procedure

1. Before the announced force dates, secure a letter from your academic advisor on departmental letterhead stating the following:
 - name
 - social security number
 - expected semester and year of graduation
 - explanation of extenuating circumstances (if any)
2. During the announced force dates/times, bring your letter to the Writing Programs Office, BLOC 224.
3. If you can not be here during the above dates/times, send a representative with a list of preferred sections, dates, and/or times and authorize him or her to make curricular decisions for you.

www-english.tamu.edu/wprograms/forcing.html

Annual Fay Lecture Series in Analytical Psychology "The Black Sun: The Alchemy and Art of Darkness" Stanton Marlan

Friday, May 2

Opening Reception: 5-6:30 p.m.

Introduction to Lecture Series by Stanton Marlan

Banquet & Entertainment: 6:30-9 p.m.

All Friday functions will be held at the Texas A&M University, Clayton Williams, Jr. Alumni Center

Saturday, May 3

Lecture 1: The Metaphor of Light and the Dark Alchemy of Descent
9-10:30 a.m.

Lecture 2: Analysis and the Art of Darkness
11-12:30 p.m.

Sunday, May 4

Lecture 3: Lumen Naturae: The Light of Darkness Itself
9-10:30 a.m.

Lecture 4: The Black Sun: Archetypal Image of the Non-Self
11-12:30pm

All lectures will be held at the Texas A&M University
Memorial Student Center, Rooms 205 & 206

TICKETS at MSC Box Office:

Students & Sr. Citizens:
$4 per lecture $12 four lectures
Adults:
$7 per lecture $24 four lectures

For additional information on the Fay Lectures call: 845-0477

President delivers solemn tribute to journalists who died in Iraq war

By Elizabeth Wolfe
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — In a solemn address to a gathering of the capital's most influential journalists and their guests, President George W. Bush paid tribute Saturday to reporters who died covering the war in Iraq. "Since we last gathered for this dinner we have lived through some extraordinary events. We have seen a dictator defy the world and we have seen a coalition of free nations give its answer," the president told the annual White House Correspondents' Association dinner.

At least 13 journalists from around the world died covering the U.S. invasion of Iraq and the ouster of its leader, Saddam Hussein. In his address, Bush singled out two American reporters who died early this month in Iraq.

"Michael Kelly's readers knew of his intellectual courage. He wrote with integrity and moral conviction, never attempting to gain favor or to please the powerful," Bush said to applause.

Kelly, 46, editor-at-large for The Atlantic Monthly magazine and a syndicated Washington Post columnist, died April 3 near Baghdad when the vehicle in which he was riding ran into a canal.

The president called David Bloom, a 39-year-old reporter for NBC News and weekend anchor of the network's "Today" show, "the perfect man to carry viewers along on the charge to Baghdad."

"David had a natural sincerity that people liked," Bush said.

Bloom died April 6 from a blood clot while covering the war south Baghdad.

After the president's address the gathering was entertained by jazz legend Ray Charles.

First lady Laura Bush accompanied the president to the event. Typically one-liners and levity prevail, but with the war in Iraq, organizers decided against the usual practice of a comedian serving as master of ceremonies.

Also, at least one soldier who was wounded in Iraq and now is at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington was invited.

"Michael Kelly's readers knew of his intellectual courage. He wrote with integrity and moral conviction..."

—George W. Bush
U.S. President

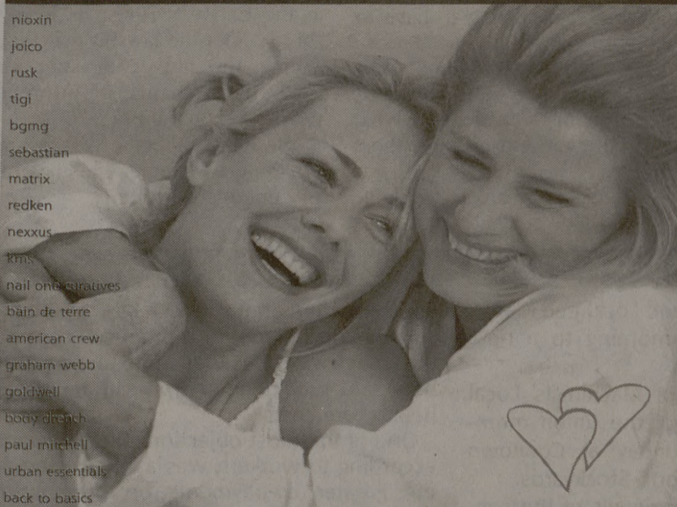

Administration officials on the guest list included Bush's chief of staff, Andrew Card; the national security adviser, Condoleezza Rice; and senior adviser Karl Rove.

Organizers said Cabinet members — Agriculture Secretary Ann Veneman; Health and Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson — as well as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Gen. Richard Myers, would attend.

From the acting world, Mary Tyler Moore, Julie Andrews and Sidney Poitier were invited.

The association also honored winners of its annual journalism awards.

HAIR • SKIN • NAILS • COSMETICS • BATH & BODY • ACCESSORIES

receive a FREE Archipelago candle with any Gift Card purchase of $25 or more.

College Station
2050 Texas Ave S, Suite A
between Old Navy & Freebirds
979.694.2683

beautyfirst
Beauty Store & Color Salon
www.beautyfirst.com

Let us put the "sun" in your next function!

We have SPECIAL OFFERS

for Sororities Fraternities and all University Clubs

2003 • GIFT ITEMS 2003 • GRADUATION

Graduate with a bang!

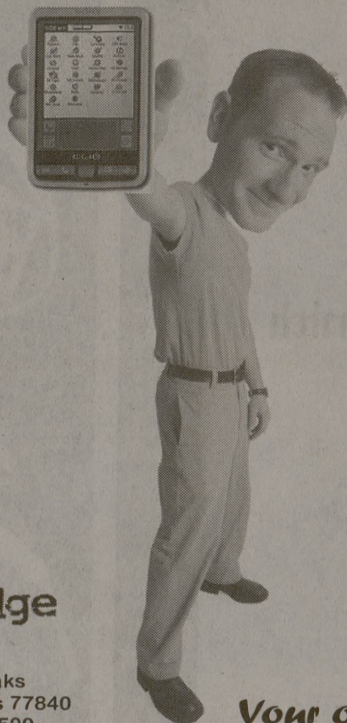

CARD & PARTY FACTORY

YOUR COMPLETE PARTY SUPPLY STORE FOR ALL AGES & OCCASIONS

717 Texas Avenue South, Suite A
College Station • (979) 696-3842

The Cambridge @ College Station wants YOU to...

Stop by for your chance to WIN!

College Station's newest full-service student residence invites you to take a tour of their brand-new model apartment & enter the weekly drawing for a chance to win a personal digital assistant.

No commitment!
No strings attached!
Offer Expires Sunday, August 10th, 2003

Free Sony Clie!

Your own personal entertainment organizer!!

Product Features:

- ♦ Palm OS 4.1
- ♦ Built-In Memory 16MB RAM, 16MB ROM
- ♦ Color display w/ back light
- ♦ Keyboard entry
- ♦ Calculator
- ♦ Address Book
- ♦ Spreadsheet
- ♦ Word Processor
- ♦ E-mail
- ♦ Rechargeable Lilon Battery
- ♦ 4.9 oz (including stylus)
- ♦ And Much More!!

