Kuehne, who had a share of the lead after the second round, made the turn at 2-under for the day, birdied Nos. 10 and 12 and then had consecutive birdies at 15, 16 and 17 to hold the lead by one shot. But the 27-year-old from Dallas put his tee shot at the 18th hole into the water. After taking a drop, his next shot soared over the green, leaving him with his only bogey of the day.

With Couples making birdies at Nos. 14, 15 and 16, where his second shot landed a foot from the pin, Calcavecchia fell out of contention for good when his shot at the 17th hole stopped at the edge of the water and he waded in knee-deep to avoid a penalty drop. When his par attempt hung on the lip of the cup for bogey, Couples

Golfers duel in Houston

HUMBLE, Texas (AP) -Fred Couples outdueled Mark Calcavecchia and held off challenges from Stuart Appleby and Hank Kuehne to win for the first time in five years, shooting a 5under 67 Sunday to take the Houston Open by four strokes. The 43-year-old Couples, looking like the golfer who was dominant in the 1990s, led or shared the lead the first three days. He wouldn't let go Sunday, shutting the door after shrugging off stumbles midway through his round.

Three consecutive birdies starting at the 14th hole paved the way for his 15th victory overall and first since the Memorial Tournament in 1998.

He finished with a flourish with a birdie on the 18th to finish at 21under 267, then broke into tears. Kuehne.
