Opener

The SMSU Bears are coming off a 21-9 season and a second place finish last year in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Bears bring back four of six starters with experience that has helped lead the team to a 6-1 start.

Centenary got off to a rugged start this year, losing its first five matches, but has managed to turn things around a bit in winning three of its last four.

After opening the season with six matches away from home, returning to G. Rollie White is something the Aggies have been looking forward to for some time. That is enough to motivate the squad for the weekend.

"The 12th Man, our great fans and the band provide such excitement and support for the girls," Corbelli said. "It makes them jump another couple inches higher, and hit a little harder and be a little more intense. It's the adrenaline — the louder the better."

The tournament begins Friday when USC takes on Centenary at 4 p.m. The Aggies get the home portion of their 2003 schedule started later that night when they take on Southwest Missouri State at 6 p.m.

After a big conference win over Oklahoma State and a 31-7 spanking of Utah State, Frank Solich's Big Red Machine will be looking to take Joe Paterno's Lions behind the shed after the Nittany Lions' paltry showing against Boston College last weekend, a 27-14 defeat.

Kickoff is at 7 p.m. on ABC.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Melton wins with birdie in playoff

Texas A&M junior golfer Nicole Melton sank a three-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to win the individual title at the Embassy Suites/Tyson Invitational on Tuesday.

The win gave Melton, who finished as a runner-up twice last season, her first individual victory.

Melton forced a playoff with Arkansas' Amanda McCurdy after shooting a two-over par 73 on the tournament's final day.

"I'm pretty excited but I'm also relieved," Melton said. "Winning a tournament has been my goal ever since I came so close last year."
