Affleck and Lopez split on wedding day

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Have they gone from Bennifer back to Ben and Jennifer?

The most overexposed couple on the planet was supposed to exchange wedding vows Sunday, but instead there was a report that they had ended their tabloid-chronicled storybook romance.

Amid the frantic speculation surrounding the pair last week, People magazine reported Sunday that Affleck has dumped Lopez due to "second thoughts" about their impending wedding.

Dubbed "Bennifer" by gossip wags, the pair planned to wed at a mansion estate near Santa Barbara.

But they postponed the ceremony Wednesday, saying excessive media attention was turning the event into havoc.

LOPEZ

Citing unidentified "sources close to the couple," People reported that Affleck initiated the breakup with Lopez, who was "devastated" and "in tears."

However, the magazine hedged its scoop by adding "it was unclear whether the separation was permanent."

A representative for Affleck, Ken Sunshine, declined to comment on the breakup rumor. Lopez's publicist, Dan Klores, did not return The Associated Press's call for comment.

Klores told People he believed the couple was still together, but had not spoken to Lopez in several days.

If the wedding happens, it will be the third for Lopez, 33, and the first for Affleck, 31. They met while filming this summer's infamous bomb, "Gigli."

Their second film together, writer-director Kevin Smith's "Jersey Girl," is set for release next year.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Older sister of Venus, Serena Williams shot to death

COMPTON, Calif. (AP) — An older sister of tennis stars Venus and Serena Williams was shot to death Sunday, and sheriff's deputies surrounded a house where three suspects were barricaded, authorities said.

Yetunde Price, 31, of Corona, was gunned down shortly after midnight in the Los Angeles suburb of Compton following a confrontation with some residents. Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy Scott Butler said.

She was pronounced dead at a hospital. At about 6 a.m., about 40 deputies surrounded a home where three people believed involved in the confrontation were barricaded, Deputy Richard Pena said. No arrests were immediately made.

Price was one of five Williams sisters who spent their early years in Compton. The family later moved to Florida.

Price was identified as a registered nurse and a business management major in Venus Williams' personal information listed in the 2003 media guide for the WTA Tour.

Depp scores again with 'Once Upon a Time in Mexico'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Johnny Depp has made another transformation: oddball actor to box office moneymaker.

The star known for playing eccentrics in cult favorites such as "Ed Wood" and "Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas" is establishing himself as a major box office draw with two films this weekend in the top five.

"Once Upon a Time in Mexico," starring Antonio Banderas as a mariachi-playing gunslinger and Depp as a sleazy CIA agent, debuted in first place with $24 million, according to industry estimates Sunday.

It was Depp's second consecutive No. 1 debut after the summertime hit "Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl."

Analysts said Depp's comical sashaying swashbuckler in "Pirates" may have helped sell audiences on "Once Upon a Time in Mexico," which was written and directed by Robert Rodriguez as a sequel to his films "El Mariachi" and "Desperado."

"Johnny Depp's career has been very interesting but he's normally not in the big blockbusters," said Paul Dergarabedian, president of box office tracker Exhibitor Relations Co. "Suddenly, he's in the No. 1 and No. 5 movie in the same weekend. For any actor that's great, and for Johnny Depp it's totally unexpected and welcome."

Depp has had blockbusters before, such as "Sleepy Hollow" (1999) and "Chocolat" (2000), and modest hits like "Edward Scissorhands" (1990) and "Donnie Brasco" (1997), but they have been few and far between the respected but little-seen cult films like "Dead Man," "Ed Wood," "Benny & Joon" and "Fear and Loathing."

The first weekend's ticket sales for "Once Upon a Time in Mexico" nearly matched the total $25.4 million theatrical gross for 1995's "Desperado," which starred Banderas but not Depp.

Madonna wants third child

LONDON (AP) — Madonna wants to have another child.

The 45-year-old singer and pop icon, who has two children, told Britain's Times newspaper she was consulting doctors about having another baby.

"Because of my exercising and this that and the other, I've kind of screwed up my cycle a bit," Madonna was quoted as saying by the newspaper's weekend magazine that came out Saturday.

"And I'm going to the doctors to make sure I'm OK to have a baby, so wish me luck," she said.

Madonna has a daughter Lourdes, 7, from her relationship with ex-boyfriend Carlos Leon; and a son Rocco, 3, with her film-director husband, Guy Ritchie.
