SPORTS IN BRIEF

Reed cards 65 as A&M finishes 2nd

Ignited by senior Stephen Reed's six-under-par 65 Tuesday's final round, the Texas A&M men's golf team charged back from ninth place to finish second at the Mason Rudolph Collegiate at the Golf Club in Tennessee.

The Aggies finished with 293-284—577 total in the team standings, 14 strokes behind first-place Alabama.

Birmingham's 273-290—563 total. Reed's masterpiece round launched him into a tie for the individual title, making him the first A&M men's golfer to win a tournament since Steve Gilliland triumphed at the 1999 Pepperdine Intercollegiate.

Reed, a senior captain, entered Tuesday's final round five strokes off the lead but tied back with a 65 that included seven birdies and one eagle. He and UAB's Chris Cousins tied for first place with total scores of 136.

A&M sophomore Andrew Parr carried over his strong play from the season opener, tying for 12th with a 75-70—145 total. Parr also tied for fourth in the team's opening tournament in New Mexico.

The Aggies' next tournament action is Oct. 6-7 at the Club Glove Intercollegiate in Somis, Calif.

Bonn nabs Big 12 Runner of Week

Texas A&M senior Tommy Bonn was named Big 12 Cross Country Runner of the Week on Tuesday after notching his first career victory last weekend.

Bonn won the Texas A&M Invitational, becoming the third Aggie to win the men's race and the first since his former teammate, Juan DeBastos, won it in 2001.

Bonn covered the 8,000-meter loop in 24:41 and helped the Aggies to a dominating team victory with 27 points, just one point off the meet record set by Houston in 1992.

"This is a tremendous honor for Tommy," said A&M coach Dave Hartman. "He's a fifth-year senior and he's worked very hard to get ready for his final cross country season. I think that showed in the way he ran last week."

After last Saturday's win, the Aggie men's team debuted in the MONDO NCAA Men's Cross Country Rankings at No. 30.

Win keeps Astros in Central race

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros were on the brink and they knew it. Their Jose Vizcaino came up with a big hit that kept them from dropping even farther back in the NL Central.

Vizcaino pinch hit in the seventh inning and singled home two runs to lead Houston over a lineup of San Francisco substitutes 2-1 Wednesday.

"If we lost today, we were in serious trouble, but we live to fight another day," Craig Biggio said. "Obviously, that was a huge hit."

Houston, which began the day one game behind the division-leading Chicago Cubs, stopped a four-game losing streak, which had tied a season high.

"This was huge for us. It was make or break for us," said Billy Wagner, who closed with a perfect ninth for his 44th save in 47 chances. "We've got to win out and hope they lose one or two. If they win out and we win out, then so be it. You get out there and the adrenaline is pumping. We've got to win this game."
