PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Witherspoon gives birth to second child

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe have a new co-star in their family: a baby boy.

The "Legally Blonde" actress gave birth to Deacon Phillippe in a Los Angeles area hospital on Oct. 23, her spokeswoman said Tuesday.

"The family is very happy and doing well," said publicist Nanci Ryder.

Witherspoon, 27, and Phillippe, 29, also have a 4-year-old daughter, Ava. They were wed in 1999.

The couple appeared together in "Cruel Intentions."

Witherspoon's other movies include "Election" and "Sweet

WITHERSPOON

Home Alabama," and Phillippe starred in "Gosford Park" and "I Know What You Did Last Summer."

Spears considers moving to London, badmouths Cowell

LONDON (AP) — Britney Spears is thinking of packing up and moving to Britain.

"I went to London last week and it's so cool there," the pop singer told Britain's ITV television in an interview broadcast Monday.

"I'm thinking of moving there. It's really beautiful. I love it there."

Spears, 21, is promoting her latest single,

SPEARS

"Me Against the Music," which features vocals from Madonna.

She also had advice for wannabe stars participating in the TV talent show "Pop Idol," counterpart of the U.S. show "American Idol."

Both feature music-industry judge Simon Cowell's often withering assessments of the hopefuls' singing abilities.

"I would take his advice and whatever he said and tell him to shove it," she said.

Spears, who got her start as a 10-year-old on TV talent show "Star Search," said she was a fan of the "Pop Idol" format, in which hopefuls compete to impress industry figures and viewers in pursuit of a recording contract.

"I think it's a cool thing, I think it's inspiring for kids," she said. "I think people watch that and it gives them hope. You see these kids, they're hungry and they're inspired and motivated."
