Spring movies

The Charlie Kaufman penned "Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind" (March 19) stars Jim Carrey as a man who attempts to erase painful memories of a failed relationship from his mind. Kevin Smith's latest film, "Jersey Girl," (March 19) stars Ben Affleck as single father Ollie Trinke. Affleck's real-life on-again, off-again girlfriend Jennifer Lopez makes an appearance as Trinke's wife. Seth Green and Alicia Silverstone join the Mystery, Inc. cast in "Scooby Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed" (March 26).

Yet another 1970s television show will be turned into a film when Ben Stiller and Owen Wilson ride into the retro-cop role of "Starsky and Hutch" (March 5). Will Ferrell, Vince Vaughn and Snoop Dogg will make guest appearances.

APRIL

Two films based on super hero comic books will be released in April. "Hellboy" (April 2) stars Ron Pearlman as a demon sent to earth during World War II who chooses to fight evil for America as a paranormal investigator. Thomas Jane stars as the killer vigilante "The Punisher" (April 16) in the movie by the same name. John Travolta co-stars as a Miami crime boss.

For those viewers who would rather have a laugh than be awed by a superhero, Ben Stiller and Jack Black team up with Christopher Walken in the comedy "Envy" by Academy Award-winning director Barry Levinson. Stiller becomes jealous when his friend Black strikes it rich with his invention, Va-Poo-Rizer, a spray that makes dog droppings disappear.

"The Whole Nine Yards" duo Matthew Perry and Bruce Willis team up again in the sequel to their 1999 hit, aptly titled "The Whole Ten Yards" (April 9). Willis plays a hitman who must protect a dentist (Perry) once again.

After a four-month delay, "The Alamo" will finally be remembered April 8. Billy Bob Thornton and Dennis Quaid star as Davy Crockett and Gen. Sam Houston respectively. The Rock and Johnny Knoxville co-star in "Walking Tall" (April 9) as two men who take it upon themselves to clean up their small town of the crime that has infested it. "Walking Tall" is a remake of a 1973 film of the same name, which was in turn based on a true story.

On April 15, Uma Thurman will return to her task to "Kill Bill" in the second installment of Quentin Tarantino's violent epic. Stephen King's novella, "Secret Window, Secret Garden" will be adapted into the "Secret Window," starring Johnny Depp (April 23). John Turturro co-stars as an eccentric man who claims a writer (Depp) stole his idea for a story. Denzel Washington stars in "Man on Fire" (April 23) as an ex-marine hired to protect a young girl played by Dakota Fanning, while Julianne Moore and Pierce Brosnan star in "Laws of Attraction" (April 30), a romantic comedy about a relationship between lawyers.

Denzel Washington and Dakota Fanning will star in "Man on Fire," set for release on April 23. The action movie also stars Christopher Walken and Marc Aronson.

MAY

Hugh Jackman will put down his Wolverine claws to portray a more famous literary character, "Van Helsing" (May 7). In the movie of the same name, Jackman must battle Dracula, the Wolf Man, and Frankenstein's Monster. May 7 will also see the release of Mary McCormack and Ashley Olsen's action comedy "New York Minute."

May 14 marks the release of "Troy," the adaptation of Homer's poem "The Iliad." Focusing on the Trojan War, the movie boasts a star cast featuring Brad Pitt as Achilles, and Orlando Bloom as Paris. In a bit of irony, The Houston Chronicle reported that Brad Pitt hurt his Achilles tendon while filming the picture.

While the upcoming movie season may cause many Aggies to flock to the theaters to watch them, other students feel as if upcoming cinematic attractions don't make the cut on their personal agenda. Grades and extracurricular activities back in session, many students will be strapped for time and money this upcoming semester.

Freshman engineering major Pricilla Garcia does not foresee herself going to many movies this spring semester.

"I don't have time," said Garcia. "Maybe one, but that's farfetched." And as time and tide wait for no man, neither does Hollywood machine.
