NEWS IN BRIEF

A&M kicker charged with evading arrest

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — An underage Texas A&M University football player who police say ran from them when they spotted him holding a beer at a bar was arrested later at his college dormitory.

Todd Pegram, the Aggies starting kicker for the previous two seasons, faces a charge of evading arrest. He posted $2,500 bail and was released from the Brazos County Jail on Sunday, according to the Bryan-College Station Eagle's Monday edition.

Police say the 20-year-old was spotted holding a beer outside a bar when a police officer asked if he was 21, the legal drinking age in Texas. Pegram said he was not, but said he didn't have any identification with him, according to court records obtained by the newspaper.

The officer began walking Pegram to another bar where a second officer was located, but police say Pegram ran as he and the officer reached the door. Pegram was later located at his dorm, where police arrested him early Sunday morning, according to the newspaper.

"I am currently looking into these recent events and we will deal with it," coach Dennis Franchione said Monday upon his return to College Station from a weekend trip.

Billions in tax refunds still unclaimed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 2 million students, retirees and other taxpayers stand to lose $2.5 billion in refunds if they don't act quickly to claim the money.

The Internal Revenue Service said Monday that anyone who should have gotten a refund for taxes paid in 2000 but didn't file a return must file and claim the money by April 15.

legislators in regional caucuses, a move opposed by the country's most powerful Shiite cleric, Grand Ayatollah Ali al-Hussein al-Sistani. It is hoped that Brahimi's team, which arrived Saturday on what is believed to be a 10-day mission, will help break the impasse.

Brahimi is expected to travel to the Shiite holy city of Najaf to meet al-Sistani, but no date has been disclosed. In Samawah, a heavily armored convoy of Japanese soldiers arrived Sunday as part of Tokyo's first military deployment in a hostile region since 1945.

The ground troops, mostly engineers, lead a deployment that will eventually reach about 800 soldiers in a humanitarian mission to improve water supplies and other infrastructure projects around Samawah. Another 200 soldiers will remain in Kuwait.
