a simple black-and-white outfit. Sorry, FURPA, but fur — fake and real deal — is coming back as well in the form of shawls and more. But truthfully, fur is nothing but excessive in Texas since the weather rarely calls for it.

If you don't want to run the risk of becoming a pre-sex symbol, Olsen Twin with an excessive amount of bows, tutu-like skirts and pearl necklace to match your pearl earrings and bracelets — a simple accessory pinned to the lapel of a jacket or sweater can give you the same look. You can even spice up an old jean jacket by taking off the buttons and sewing on big, colorful ones that you can be found at Hobby Lobby or Michael's.

The fresh and appealing style of a Kennedy carries over for men, well. There is a definite nautical feel to men's fashions. A blue button-down over a crisp collared shirt is made casual with docksiders and no socks. The houndstooth, skinny plaid coats are classy as well. Ice cream colors such as pink, canary yellow, white and blue may be a risk for guys, but it's a chance you should be willing to take because you'll be sure to stand out above the crowd. To ensure that you do not overdress, roll up the sleeves of a button-down shirt to mid-forearm.

Jump into this world of bright, intense colors this fall. Guys, try the cream-sicle colors. And girls, it's time to help Granny clean out her closet, because you just might find some must-haves for your fall wardrobe.

Tracey Roark wears a feminine, yet understated dress from Neiman Marcus. The frilly outer layer adds an extra touch of femininity.
