WELL YOU GO TO HALF A PIZZA.
THE BETT JUST FOLLOWED YOU HOME ONE DAY.

Rudder
"She served as an incredible life partner to (A&M) President Rudder," Josefy said. "And in strong and motherly fashion, guided our campus and its students through our most pivotal years of transition."
Along with being A&M President, James Rudder was a U.S. Army major general, and led a group of Army Rangers during the World War II D-Day invasion in Normandy. He was also a football coach and rancher.
Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at A&M United Methodist Church in College Station. Members of the Rudder's Rangers unit of the Corps of Cadets will serve pall bearers, and a Singing Cadets quartet will perform.
"It was an honor to be asked to be representatives at the service," Reed said. "The Singing Cadets will be performing in the San Antonio area, but we felt it was important to have a group (at the funeral)."
Rudder is survived by two sons and two daughters. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
"Her presence at University events, from solemn occasions to football games, always lifted spirits and brought joy to us all," Gates said. "We will always miss her greatly, but like her husband she will always be remembered and revered by Aggies."

"I think it's an awesome opportunity to help the student body out, to provide a safer way home," she said.
Rogers said students not on a team are still welcome to attend.
