NEWS IN BRIEF

Government halts Internet identity theft scam

HOUSTON (AP) — Federal officials have shut down an identity theft scam in which a Houston man tricked Internet users into providing their credit card and bank account numbers.

Zachary Keith Hill, 19, pleaded guilty in February to having and using credit instruments that did not belong to him. He is set to be sentenced May 17 in Houston and faces up to 15 years in prison, according to federal prosecutors.

Neither Hill, who is free on $25,000 bond, nor his attorney, Victor Blaine, immediately returned phone messages Tuesday.

According to the government, Hill got hundreds of people to provide information by sending e-mails that appeared to come from America Online or Paypal. The e-mails requested updated personal information and said the account would be suspended if the information wasn't provided, according to a Department of Justice criminal complaint.

Hill also was named in a civil action by the Federal Trade Commission.

"A hyperlink in the e-mail took consumers what appeared to be the AOL Billing Center with AOL's logo and live links to real AOL Web pages. But the copycat Web page belonged to the defendant," the FTC said.

Cameron County sheriff Cantu faces trial April 19

BROWNSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Cameron County Sheriff Conrado Cantu pleaded guilty Tuesday to allegations he misused authority by rallying support for his re-election bid during a mandatory jailhouse meeting.

Cantu is set to go on trial April 19. He was indicted last month on one count of abuse of official capacity and faces up to a year in county jail and a $4,000 fine if convicted.

He has denied wrongdoing, saying the indictment is "personal" between him and District Attorney Yolanda de Leon.
