SPORTS IN BRIEF

Aggie baseball heads to Round Rock to face Bobcats

The No. 9 Texas A&M baseball team looks to rebound from Sunday's 14-5 loss to Texas Tech as it travels to Round Rock, Texas, to face Texas State University at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Dell Diamond.
The Aggies (23-6) moved up in the polls one spot despite dropping two of their four games last week.
Texas State (15-2) is coming off a three-game sweep of Southland Conference rival McNeese State in Lake Charles, La. The sweep brought the Bobcats win streak to four games as they enter the game with A&M.
Texas State, formerly Southwest Texas State University, will start senior pitcher Paul Schappert on the mound. Schappert is 2-4 on the year with a 7.09 earned run average. In 33 innings of work, Schappert has given up 55 hits and 30 runs and batters are hitting .390 off him.
A&M will counter with sophomore right-handed pitcher Robert Ray. Ray dropped out of the weekend rotation two weeks ago before the conference-opening series with Baylor University. He is 1-1 on the season with a 6.38 ERA. Ray has also struck out 27 batters in only 24 innings pitched.
The Aggies will return to College Station Wednesday to take on the University of Texas-San Antonio at Olsen Field in a make-up game from a rainout Feb. 24.

dinate our schedules, but we usually aside the weekends for us," Jones said. "usually that gets interrupted more in spring because there's more weekend events scheduled."
After practicing for two hours with her team, Jones quickly cleans and feeds her horse. If she hurries, she can study for just a few hours after a shower and dinner, but before she meets with a group from class work on a project. Maybe she'll get to tonight before midnight, but probably not. And when her alarm clock goes off in the morning, just like every other college student she will let out a sleepy groan before starting her daily routine.

Students are encouraged to attend and email spam@ifoco.com if interested in joining either the eating contest or forming a team as there are spots that still need to be filled.
