

Student Body President

Narietha D. Carter

Howdy!
I'm Narietha Carter and I'm a Senior English major/Business minor from Houston, Texas. Standing up for the students' voices and making sure students positively benefit in all ways possible from an Aggie education is what I care about, so much that I'm running for Student Body President. My motto is "Carter Cares," and I want to let you know about just five major issues from my platform that impact you as students. Texas A&M needs a strong leader to care about the students' voices, stand up for the students and make sure students are benefiting from A&M policies. I can serve as that leader. For more details about who I am and what I stand for, please visit my Web site at www.ndc4sbp.com. Don't forget to vote NDC for SBP!

Jack Hildebrand

"Ideologies separate us. Dreams and anguish bring us together." - Eugene Ionesco
Throughout my journey at Texas A&M I have learned a key principle that has become very important in my life. This is the principle of unity. The position of Student Body President should be one that ensures that there is unity among the student body. To do this it is imperative that the student body president is actively involved in all student affairs and has constant dialogue with all students. The student body's wants and needs are my focus and I believe in the students' power to influence and I want to make our voice heard. By providing a unified goal and struggling to get there as one, the students can achieve so much more together than separated. Students and their involvement are what make this University great. The input of the student body should be considered in every decision made on campus. I am excited about the opportunity to serve the student body by ensuring that your interests are considered. For more information on what I am about, please refer to www.backjack04.com

Mark McCaig

Howdy! My name is Mark McCaig and I am running to bring real change to the SGA. I am focusing on the issues of governmental relations, fiscal responsibility, accountability, and traditions. I will vigorously fight fee increases and tuition deregulation. I will also work to add a bonfire site to the campus master plan. I have also developed a 41-point plan of specific policy objectives that I will undertake as SBP. If you have any questions, please visit my Web site (www.MarkMcCaig.com). Remember, the Student Government belongs to us. It's time we took it back.

Royd Hernandez

Howdy!
My name is Royd Hernandez. I'm a junior Biomedical Engineering major from Pharr, TX, and the proudest member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005! I'm running for Student Body President to implement solid, realistic, and intelligent ideas derived from the student body itself. The implementation of your ideas will serve to improve student life, create a unified and diverse student government, attain academic excellence, uphold traditions, and narrow the gap of miscommunication between the student government and the student body. Vote Royd Hernandez to make the promised changes a reality.

Senior Yell

Taylor "Tbaum" Baumgartner

Howdy, I'm Taylor "Tbaum" Baumgartner. I'm a Junior Civil Engineer from Blanco, Texas, but more importantly I'm the proudest member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005. It's great to have the opportunity to be running this year and be the only non-reg candidate for Sr. Yell. Texas Aggie Yell Leaders are known throughout the nation as the heart of Aggieland, and it is a great honor to serve as a Texas Aggie Yell Leader. For me to have that honor bestowed upon me and represent the large non-reg student community of Texas A&M would be something I hold dear to my heart. To serve as a Yell Leader as I have served the past years as the 12th Man, at Muster and at Silver Taps would be a privilege. Thanks and Gig 'em, and remember to vote Tbaum 4 Sr. Yell.

Ryan Bishop

Howdy! My name is Ryan Bishop and I am a junior business major from Colleyville, Texas. I am a proud member of the Corps of Cadets Company E-2 and a proud member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005. The position of Junior Yell Leader has given me many opportunities to see what a unique school we have. Thank you for allowing me to serve you this past year, and it would be an honor to serve you again as a Senior Yell Leader. Please remember Bishop, Terrell and Houston Haley for Senior Yell. Thanks and Gig 'Em.

Houston Haley

Howdy! My name is Houston Haley and I'm a junior Business major from Fredericksburg, TX. I am a proud member of the Corps of Cadets, Squadron 2, and a proud member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005. Since coming to A&M two years ago, Aggieland has become my home, and I can think of no greater way to give back to A&M than by serving as a Senior Yell Leader. When you vote, remember Bishop, Terrell, and Houston for Senior Yell!

Andy Herreth

Howdy! My name is Andy Herreth; I'm a senior Political Science major from Missouri City, Texas, and the proudest member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie class of 2004! I'm running for Student Body President because I want to represent your views to the admission committee. I will work hard to accomplish my campaign's platform goals, which center on saving students' money while perpetuating Aggie traditions. Included in that are creative ideas for Athletics, Fall Activities, Parking, Residence Halls, and Student Government. I encourage you to visit the Web site to learn more about these ideas and please don't forget to vote!

Will McAdams

As Commander of the Corps of Cadets, I sense that as a student body we are losing some of the most special qualities that make Aggies unique. The pillars of tradition on which we base our pride are crumbling, specifically attendance at Silver Taps and Muster, student attendance at Aggie sporting events and even the friendly "Howdy" heard around campus. Issues such as these are changing the very fabric of Aggie culture, and will continue to worsen until the student government, working alongside the administration, finds that critical direction and goal that will lead Texas A&M toward a better future. This campaign is not for me, but for the students. The office of Student Body President is not a position about just one person, but something much bigger than ourselves. After all, that is what we are fighting for. Please check out my Web site and take a quick look at our platform. I welcome your feedback because this is your campaign, too. Thank you for your support.

Paul Terrell

Howdy, my name is Paul Terrell and I am a junior ag business major from Sherman, Texas. I am a proud member of the Corps of Cadets Company E-2 and Parsons Mounted Cavalry, and a proud member of the Fighting Texas Aggie Class of 2005. This past year has been incredible, having the honor to serve as a Junior Yell Leader. I would really appreciate the opportunity to serve the University in this capacity again as a Senior Yell Leader. Please remember Bishop, Terrell and Houston Haley for Senior Yell. Thanks and Gig 'Em.

Junior Yell Leaders

Keaton Askew

Howdy, I'm Keaton Askew, a sophomore Agricultural Development major from New Home, Texas. I'm a member of the Corps of Cadets Squadron 17, and a member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. Words cannot express how honored I am to be considered for Jr. Yell. A&M has given me so much and it'd be my privilege to give back by serving as a Yell Leader. By honoring a student at Silver Taps or standing as the 12th Man, it's a student's duty to preserve the traditions at A&M. Thank you, and remember Keaton and Patrick Junior Yell.

Patrick Hebert

Howdy, I'm Patrick Hebert, a sports management major from La Grange, Texas. I'm a proud member of the Corps of Cadets Company L-1 and a proud member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. The privilege of being considered for Junior Yell is one that I haven't taken lightly. Growing up in an Aggie family, I'm full-blooded maroon. The spirit and pride that I possess for A&M will only grow stronger with the chance to serve as a Junior Yell Leader. I'd be honored to receive your vote, so please remember Patrick and Keaton for Junior Yell. Thanks and Gig 'Em.

Jacob Scher

Howdy! My name is Jacob Scher and I'm a sophomore marketing and management major from Katy, Texas, but more importantly, I am the PROUDEST member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. I have chosen to run for Junior Yell this year because I love the Aggie Family, Spirit, Traditions and giving back to this University. From the moment I stepped foot on campus, I have dedicated my time to making A&M better for those to come. I am involved in seven organizations on campus ranging from Parents Weekend Committee, to Change, to a two-year Fish Camp counselor, to Ags of OAK, to the president of my dorm, to CARPOOL. All these organizations truly enhance the spirit that sets A&M apart from many schools. Change helps Aggies purchase Aggie Rings for those who could not afford them. CARPOOL protect your friends and mine on the weekend. Fish Camp teaches the new generation of Aggies what it truly means to join our Aggie Family. I am the only non-reg running for Junior Yell this year. I could not be more honored than to serve Texas A&M and represent my school as a Fightin' Texas Aggie Yell Leader. I would like to thank my mom and all my staff for all the support and encouragement. I could not have done this without you! Please remember when you vote, Vote Jacob 4 Jr. Yell!

Class Council

Class of 2005

Vice President

Jared Patterson

Howdy! My name is Jared Patterson. I'm a junior political science major from Whitesboro, Texas. But most importantly, I'm the PROUDEST member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005. I have served as a member of Class Councils

Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005. I have served as a member of Class Councils for the past year and have several ideas to increase council efficiency and in turn better serve the Class of 2005. My primary goal as Vice President is to concentrate on making sure you are informed of the Senior Class Traditional Events (i.e. Elephant Walk & Ring Dance) as well as other class-wide events we may host. Another goal along those same lines is to get the word out about what Class Councils is and how we can serve you as our class constituents. Once again, my name is Jared Patterson and I'd appreciate your vote for Class of 2005 Vice President.

Nathan Tichenor

Early in my career at A&M I decided I wanted to be a leader and serve my class. Soon after I was selected to serve on Class Council, where I have been an active member for two years. For my senior year, I wanted to give something more back to the greatest Class ever. This is why I'm running for Class of 2005 Vice President. I have a vision to make the Class of 2005 a standout class. To make our class one that future classes compare themselves to and look up to. With me serving as your Vice President, I can help make our senior year here in Aggieland a year we can all look back on as old Ags and be proud of. I want to help make out last year here at Texas A&M one that we will always remember!

Secretary

Lindsey Leissner

Howdy! My name is Lindsey Leissner. I am a finance major from San Antonio, Texas, but most importantly, I am the PROUDEST member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2005! A-A-A-WHOOP! I have been a member of Class Councils and would love to serve as your Senior Class Secretary!

Historian

Emily Hodges

My name is Emily Hodges and I am a Psychology major from Katy, Texas. I have had the honor of serving on Class Council this past year, and look forward to the opportunity of serving our class as SENIOR Class Historian!!! By working together with class officers, team members, and most importantly YOU, my goal is to help continue the tradition of excellence that 2005 has left on Texas A&M, and help leave a lasting mark on our campus that will represent our class of 2005 in years to come! # Class of 2006

President

Austin Bird

Howdy! My name is Austin Bird, and I'm a business major from Granbury, Tx. Most importantly, I'm the proudest member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. A-A-A-A! As the only candidate with previous Class Council experience, I've spent this last year serving our class as a Committee Chair and learning all the ins and outs expected of someone in this position. I would be honored to use this experience to help continue to make the class of 2006 the best here at A&M. Next year is a pivotal year for our class because we have several big events, such as E-Walk and the class gift. Class unity is important to me, and I promise to make sure that everyone's voice will be able to be heard in developing these future events. Remember to vote Austin Bird for 2006 President!

Vice President

Wil V. Srubar III

Howdy Ags! My name is Wil Srubar, your current Vice President and THE PROUDEST member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. A-A-A WHOOP! I would like to let you know that it has been a pleasure serving you this year, and I would like no greater honor than to have that privilege once again. If A&M has taught me anything, it is to value traditions, so re-elect me and I will make sure that the best tradition, the Class of 2006, will continue making its mark on this University. Thanks, gig 'em and God bless!
