Gillispie signs first recruit as A&M head coach

Texas A&M men's basketball head coach Billy Gillispie signed his first recruit to play for A&M Wednesday as Temple junior college forward Edjuan Green signed a national letter-of-intent.

Green averaged 19.7 points per game during the 2003-04 season and was second nationally in rebounding, averaging 14.7 per game.

"We are excited about having Edjuan join our program, Gillispie said. "He's a real pointsand-rebounds producing guy and has a chance to come in and make us better immediately." A&M was able to sign Green after receiving a waiver to the 8/5 Rule to the NCAA. The rule states that a men's basketball program cannot sign more than eight players in a two-year span, and no more than five players in one year. Green becomes the ninth signee for A&M in two years.

team has obviously built the confidence that they can win the match when they lose the doubles point,' Cass said. "But I would like to win the doubles point and see what that would do to our lineup.'

After being dominated by Baylor, 7-0, the Cowboys have rebounded with wins over the University of Oklahoma and Texas Tech. Sophomore Juan Felipe Diaz, Co-Big 12 Player of the Week, has been particularly impressive. Cowboy head coach James Wadley believes he is fortunate to have players such as Diaz step up in key situations.

"Every time we win we have different people come through for us," Wadley said. "(Against Texas Tech) it was Tomas (Bohunicky), (Diaz), Daniel (Byrnes) and our doubles came through for us."

Cass said he understands how important this match is,

and that he needs his best combinations to win. "They're a very good team, basically the same they had last year," Cass said. "They were able to beat us 4-3 last year (in Stillwater, Okla.), with the last match (deciding the outcome).

Clarett's favor.

They will be tough.'

school two years, would be eligible for the draft next year under the current rule. He dropped out of classes at Ohio State after the winter quarter. U.S. District Court Judge Shira Scheindlin ruled in February that Clarett should be allowed in the draft. She said the rule excluding him violates antitrust law and Clarett, 20 and out of high unjustly blocks a player from pursuing his livelihood. There is no court deadline for Ginsburg to act on the request, but Clarett's lawyer said if no decision is rendered before the draft Clarett

"will suffer substantial irreparable injury." If Ginsburg or the full court turns down the request, the lower court's decision against Clarett stands.

Should the court decide against Clarett - and by extension, Williams — the players could only return to play college football if they met academic standards and their universities successfully petitioned the NCAA for reinstatement. Steve Snapp, an assistant

State, said there were significant obstacles in the way of Clarett regaining his eligibility even if he wanted to rejoin the Buckeyes. "There is a number of issues about whether or not he has professionalized himself," Snapp said. The NFL also could be compelled legally to include Clarett and Williams in a supplemental draft. Former stars such as Reggie White, Cris Carter and Bernie Kosar entered the NFL after being taken in supplemental drafts.
