Speaker-elect. "If someone wants to know the faculty's position they call the speaker."

Gunn also plans to make faculty involvement a primary goal during his term.

"There is quite a lot of apathy on the part of faculty members," Gunn said. "A lot of faculty members are of the opinion that the voice of the faculty doesn't matter to the administration. It is incorrect and certainly incorrect under Dr. Gates. He is involving the faculty in a lot of decisions."

Gunn also volunteers his time to run a freshman learning committee made up of 25 first year genetics and bio-chemistry majors.

"He does this (freshman learning committee) on his own without help," said Dr. Martha Louder, accounting professor and former Speaker of the Faculty Senate. "Each year he takes the students to Europe for Spring Break."

Gunn has served as a senator for the past three years. He has served as an at-large member of the Executive Committee and as Secretary-Treasurer. He has served on several committees including the President's Task Forces on Academic Integrity and the search committee for the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Students have honored Gunn by naming him a Fish Camp namesake in 1997. He was also given the Academic Inspiration Award by one of his students in 1996.

"(Gunn will) be a great person to accomplish all of his goals," Louder said. "He's quite organized and is very persuasive. I think people on campus have a lot of respect for him."

Creel said he has known Surovik for 10 years "as a student and excellent leader."

He said that while the candidates would have to be qualified, Surovik brings a lot to the table.

"Bob has excellent legal and vast experience in and legal areas," Creel said. "Surovik loves A&M and has a great edge of how things work."

Surovik also served as chair of the Association of Merit Students' One Spring campaign committee.

Surovik said his experience would be a useful tool in his new role.

"I like to gather all the information before I offer opinions on Surovik said. "I've seen a lot of boards and I know I need to be a good listener
