NEWS IN BRIEF

McLaughlin opposed to idea of new national intelligence chief

WASHINGTON (AP) - Rejecting a recommendation expected this week from the Sept. 11 commission, the CIA's acting director said Sunday a new national intelligence chief is unnecessary and that intelligence agencies have made changes since the 2001 attacks to better protect the country.

John McLaughlin said "a good argument can be made" for a Cabinet-level position to oversee the nation's 15 intelligence agencies and control their budgets.

But, he added, "It doesn't relate particularly to the world I live in. I see the director of Central Intelligence as someone who is able to do that and is empowered to do so under the National Security Act of 1947."

U.S. airstrike in Fallujah kills 14 Iraq says it approved the attack

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) - A U.S. airstrike authorized by Iraq's interim Prime Minister Iyad Allawi hit targets in Fallujah, Iraq, Sunday, killing 14 people, Iraqi officials said.

Word that Allawi approved the early morning attack was a clear attempt to show that the Iraqi government has taken full sovereignty from the Americans and to firm control, despite its deep reliance on the 150,000 foreign troops, mainly from the United States.

Also Sunday, Philippine leaders said they would begin withdrawing their small contingent of troops from Iraq as early as Monday in keeping with the demand of kidnappers holding a Filipino truck driver hostage.
