Parents Weekend date changed

Due to a convergence of factors, a decision has been made to change the dates of Parents' Weekend for Spring 2005. This decision was made after much thought and consultation from both University and community constituencies. The dates for Parents' Weekend 2005 are now set for April 8-10. Planners in the Department of Student Activities say they recognize that individuals and organizations who have made arrangements around the previous dates (April 22-24) will now have to change them. They apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause and appreciate any assistance in notifying others of the new dates.

Direct any questions to Kevin Jackson, director of the Department of Student Activities at kevin@stuact.tamu.edu or Sharra Durham, adviser to the Parents' Weekend Committee. Both may be reached at 979-845-1133.

Scholarship Recognition Program on Sunday

Texas A&M's 2004 academic scholarship recognition ceremony is set for 1 p.m. Sunday at Rudder Theater. The event is intended for incoming freshman receiving academic scholarships through the Office of Honors Programs and Academic Scholarships.

"This year, we expect about 650 incoming freshmen who hold one or more of these prestigious academic awards," said Myra Gonzales, associate director of the Office of Honors Programs and Academic Scholarships.

For more information, contact Gonzalez at (979) 458-1572 or visit the honors Web site at <http://honors.tamu.edu>.

Campus briefs are compiled by the office of University Relations.
