yours and you can do what you want with it." Barzak said possible security issues arising from official state vehicles being available for sale to the public were not a concern. Sophomore biology major Lauren Parker said she's only used eBay to buy CDs and T-shirts in the past. "I probably wouldn't have much use for a bus," Parker said. "But if I did, I probably wouldn't be looking for it on eBay."

too many people and not enough spaces." Logan Renfrow, a junior management major and speaker of the Student Senate, said he is glad Weis took time to discuss parking and transit issues with students. "I think this was a great time for Weis to come out and take students' questions," Renfrow said. "He answered a lot of questions and as long as there's a student in the crowd, he'll answer questions."
